WRESTLING

B. J.BRADSHAW 135 LB. CHAMPION

These Athletic Youngsters Are Wonders, and Have a Good Time While Training and Competing.

in excellent and perfect rhythm-mind you-is nothing naw to the who is the rag-time champlon of the club, and who lives at No. 272 East Tenth street, is the rest Paderewski of the east side. When the club has its regular wrestling and besing hours an that's the way with the boys of the Poys' Club anyhow. They are wonders. Once there was an inter-settlement Club, which, by the way, is a real boys' club, with headquarters and rooms for romping and wrestling, boxing and the rest, in a fine big building at the worth-Patronesses Were Shocked.

Clad like Roman gladiators of oldthat is meaning the breech-cloth thing -the boys, ready for the fray, entered the well-appointed ring in the gyn nasium. In the gallery overlooking the ring a number of vatronesses of the club-good, benevolent and devot women who love boys for the real good that is in boys-took positions to wit ness the contests. When "Larry Dineen and "Moe" Jacobowski-ski also a favorite and popular sport on the east side-entered the ring for their east side-entered the ring for their bare arm and hare leg contest, the women looked and wondered. When "Larry" and "Moe" deliberately hauled off their trousers the good women covered their faces with cheir mands and fied from the gallery. That settled it. Wrestling bouts at the Boys' Club became more bopular than ever.

There was another wrestling tournament last night, and if slapping a fellow in the face and on the back until he is as red as a lobster counts, and if gripping him by the calves of the legs and giving him a high toss in the lar also counts, then wrestling is a great uning.

They—the boys—gos together in all.

A LLEN DEAKIN, of the vigillaries and giving him a high toss in the air also counts, then wrestling is a great uning.

They—the boys—got together in all stages of undress, fust like the Roman gladiators whom the patronesses saw, and they mussed each other's hair worduly. They got together, and very close at that, too, in the loo-pound class, as "Pat" Kelly announced them, to the 163-pound class, and Supt. Tabor looked on smiling from the gallery. He applauded when one of his boys gave a by from the Educational Alliance, or the Clark House, or the Union Settlement, or the Gordon House, or the West Side House, or any of the other houses or settlements that had the temerity to send a candidate against the host, a glam to the iloor, a toss in the air or and the members of the Boys Club, for their own more than held their own, and usually the guests got more than they barkained for.

Jim Nell made the usual holler, for a grand stand play, but later quieted down. After the fight Jim said that Frankie had been sick and exhibited a doctor's certificate to that effect.

Frankie has evidently gone back so far that he will never be able to fight again, for his showing with Attell was that of the merest tyro.
